

First-Generation Low-Income at Yale

November 29th, 2018

Vol. 1, Issue 14

A Few Brief Notes

Happy Thursday!

We're sending a brief note to send a reminder of the 2019 1vyG Conference happening at Princeton next semester as the deadline approaches, as well as make a small correction:

As the Facebook page indicates, the FGLI Faculty & Staff ft. Michael Fitzpatrick event will take place on Saturday, December 8th at 2 pm, not 5 pm. Apologies for the confusion!

Let's get through this week friends! We'll be at Study Hall as always, and remember we're still in reach these last couple of weeks of classes!

1vyG: The inter-Ivy, First-Generation Students' Conference

1vyG applications are live! 1vyG is the largest first-generation, low-income (FGLI) student conference in the country and has traditionally served as a safe space for FGLI students to come together. This year, 1vyG is at Princeton University from Friday, February 15 to Sunday, February 17th, 2019. The conference theme is From Moment to Movement: Capitalizing on our FLI Experiences to become Agents of Change in Our Communities. Applications are due Monday, December 3rd. To apply, please click the button below.

If you have any questions, please contact:
Maddy O'Neal, Ambassador (madison.oneal@yale.edu) or Neché Veysal, Mobilizer (neche.veysal@yale.edu).

For more information about the conference, visit their website at

"Dominator culture has tried to keep us all afraid, to make us choose safety instead of risk, sameness instead of diversity. Moving through that fear, finding out what connect us, reveling in our differences; this is the process that brings us closer, that gives us a world of shared values, of meaningful community."
